Ask to be spanked on your birthday and you might find yourself being busted wide open, whacked endlessly, clipped to the wall and finally reduced to tears. In some other cases, you'll just find a set of vacant eyes staring back - a good way to weed out the riffraff!

Take it in deep. This is a spiritual journey, a joint discovery mission. In this parallel world, you now got someone to go with. If done right, asking for a hug at the end will be superfluous.
