Spanking is like working a cake batter into submission. If you go too fast, you'll wreck it all and probably make it go all runny on you. Speed is not the only facet of this manoeuvre that can do you in. If you stay fixed in one area, you'll soon find the state of affairs turning rather gory just the same.

For a glorious batter, close your eyes, imagine the brilliance of a shooting star and gently but firmly follow its curved course. Loosen your grip, hug the bowl. Lick when done.
